

WEST HIGHLAND WAY

ITINERARY

The West Highland Way is 152km (95 miles) long. The walk links Milngavie to Fort William - from the outskirts of Scotland's largest city to the foot of its highest mountain, following the shores of its largest freshwater loch. You may be lucky whilst walking the Way to spot some of the wildlife of the area.

DAY 1 INVERARNAN

All participants meet in Inverarnan Old Drovers Inn where we will be staying.

DAY 2 INVERARNAN TO BRIDGE OF ORCHY 19 MILES

The trek today is actually not that difficult and breaks us in nicely for the coming days. With a low pass to climb and some outstanding scenery along the way, this stretch is done on good paths and tracks. From Inverarnan our main bags are transferred to Bridge of Orchy.

DAY 3 BRIDGE OF ORCHY TO KINLOCHLEVEN 21 MILES

If we are blessed with a clear day, our challenge today will be absolutely stunning. After a straightforward and easygoing start, we trek along the western edge of the infamous Rannoch Moor. The views here are magnificent and they continue as we trek through Kinghouse and the Devil's Staircase, an old military road overlooking Glencoe, before descending into Kinlochleven.

DAY 4 KINLOCHLEVEN TO FORT WILLIAM 14 MILES

We start early today as we leave Kinlochleven after a hearty breakfast and we finish off the last 14 miles of the West Highland Way to Fort William. We climb through the forest then into Glen Nevis with great views of Ben Nevis before the final stretch into Fort William. For our final day, legs will be tired and feet sore, and although the day's walk is only 14 miles it will be well into the afternoon before the last of the walkers reaches Nevis Bank Hotel where we have tea and sandwiches waiting for us. The minibuses leaves the hotel late afternoon to return to our vehicles in Inverarnan.
